

JEAN CROUTHAMEL

Jean competes in USDAA and has been training and competing in agility since 1997. She has competed with four dogs at the Masters level in Gamblers, Pairs Relay, Jumpers, Snooker, and Standard classes. Three of Jean's dogs have been rescues and each have presented totally different training challenges. She teaches and trains with positive motivation utilizing food and toys as rewards. Jean has competed on several dog agility masters teams. She qualified for team finals in 1999 and 2000 with her JRT "Bandit". She also qualified with her dog "Zen" twice in 2002, three times in 2003, again in 2004 and 2006. Jean also placed 6th in Round 2 of Grand Prix at North East Regionals in 2002 and again in 2003 for a bye into the semi-final round at the National event in Texas. Zen also made the list for IFCS World Agility Championship standings in 2003. Jean's young dog "T" qualified for USDAA Nationals in 2011 in Grand Prix, Steeplechase and Dog Agility Masters Team. She currently has her Master Agility Dog title.
